

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, 56 years ago, the founders of the American Society of Professional Estimators, better known as ASPE, joined together to establish an organization that started with fewer than 20 members and can boast today of thousands of members in chapters all across the United States; and

WHEREAS, since its inception on July 1, 1956 in Los Angeles, California, ASPE has championed the role of the Cost Estimator to the construction industry by providing education, fellowship, and opportunity for professional development. ASPE is the only organization that is dedicated to the promotion of the profession of estimating and to the benefit of the construction industry; and

WHEREAS, ASPE has developed a comprehensive set of nationwide educational programs, scholarships, ethics of practice, and standards for the practice of construction cost estimating; and

WHEREAS, ASPE members throughout the nation have worked to achieve awareness for this professional career, employment of cost estimators is expected to grow 36% from now to 2020, much faster than the average for all occupations. Construction cost estimators' role is to collect and analyze data to estimate the time, money, resources, and labor required for commercial, heavy, or residential construction projects; and

WHEREAS, the construction industry touches all our lives, ASPE is keenly aware of the importance of the cost estimator's role and deem it appropriate that estimators be recognized for their dedication and commitment to the construction industry; and

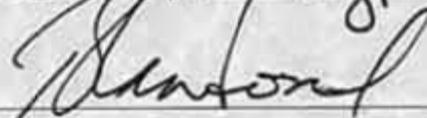

WHEREAS, this year, the American Society of Professional Estimators will celebrate 56 years of service to the construction industry and construction cost estimators of the construction industry should be recognized for their outstanding contributions;

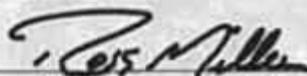

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim July 8-14 2012, as

CONSTRUCTION COST ESTIMATOR WEEK IN NEVADA

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 30th day of May, 2012.
