

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, on September 11, 2012, we to pay tribute to the selfless heroes and innocent victims of the September 11, 2001 tragedy that called forth in all of us a sense of unity, service, and patriotism; and

WHEREAS, Nevadans will join together with Americans across the country to participate in the "I Will" campaign to promote greater unity, compassion and peace in our world; and

WHEREAS, AmeriCorps members throughout the state, who give a year of service to our local communities, will be focusing their service on this day to collect donations for our military service members and veterans; and

WHEREAS, each individual has unique talents, interests, and skills to share through service; and

WHEREAS, Nevada Volunteers, the state's commission on service and volunteering, encourages everyone to find a way to serve their community in observance of this day; and

WHEREAS, service above self is a cornerstone of this administration;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim September 11, 2012 as

Day of Service and Remembrance in Nevada

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 20th day of August, 2012.
