

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, the most influential people in many of our children's lives, outside of family, are the school teachers with whom they spend their days; and

WHEREAS, rarely do we thank or recognize our state's teachers for their tireless efforts to shape our children's lives and empower their futures; and

WHEREAS, the Be Kind People Project™, a nonprofit dedicated to improving the nation's educational environment by recognizing teachers and positively impacting students, will launch a major initiative to thank Nevada's teachers and promote kindness in the classroom during World Kindness Week; and

WHEREAS, during the week of November 12, The Be Kind People Project will collaborate with Teach for America® to bestow gifts of appreciation and Classroom Kindness Kits on thousands of teachers throughout Nevada; and

WHEREAS, the nonprofit hopes that everyone in the community will take a moment to express their gratitude to our city's teachers by saying "Thanks!" for a job well done; and

WHEREAS, through this effort, The Be Kind People Project hopes to spark a movement to express gratitude to teachers while inspiring kindness and combating bullying among students; and

WHEREAS, Nevada's teachers are unsung heroes and deserve this special acknowledgement during World Kindness Week;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim November 12 – 16, 2012 as

Classroom Kindness Week in Nevada

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 3rd day of October, 2012.
