

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, each year during National Family Caregivers Month, we celebrate all those who dedicate themselves to caring for others and recognize their efforts to comfort and improve the lives of their loved ones in need; and

WHEREAS, the State of Nevada would like to honor and recognize the enormous contributions and sacrifice caregivers make every day to persons who are chronically ill, elderly or disabled; and

WHEREAS, Nevada caregivers provide a wide variety of services to promote as much independence and well deserved respect for all persons served; and

WHEREAS, these services enable our frail and needy population to have options and live independently in their home and our communities as long as they are able to with dedicated support; and

WHEREAS, in the State of Nevada there are thousands of family members living with chronic illnesses, disabilities, and limitations of aging; they are supported in their work by an army of dedicated volunteers and professional caregivers; and

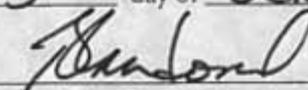

WHEREAS, the work of these individuals together makes it possible for Nevadans with disabilities to live with dignity and caregivers rarely get the thanks and recognition they deserve, I urge my fellow Nevadans to acknowledge these hard working people with me;

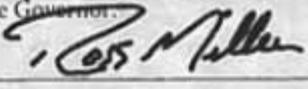

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim the month of November 2012, as

NEVADA CAREGIVER MONTH

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 3rd day of October, 2012.
