

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, Nevadans gather across the state today to appreciate and honor its service members, veterans, and their families; and

WHEREAS, Nevada's veterans have served to protect the freedom and security of all Americans, even at risk of their own lives; and

WHEREAS, all veterans deserve a solemn and dignified military burial; and

WHEREAS, there are those in our land who would try to disturb these final rites; and

WHEREAS, some of these veterans leave our midst with no family in Nevada communities; and

WHEREAS, various veterans groups have taken it upon themselves to ensure their veteran brothers and sisters are given the burial they deserve; and

WHEREAS, the Nevada Patriot Guard Riders have consistently assisted with burial services by providing escorts and lines of U.S. flags to honor Nevada's fallen heroes in order to honor the fallen and ensure the solemnity of these services; and

WHEREAS, Nevada thanks the members of the Nevada Patriot Guard Riders for their unswerving dedication to our veterans and for their outstanding support of their families;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim November 11, 2014, as

A DAY IN HONOR OF THE PATRIOT GUARD RIDERS IN THE STATE OF NEVADA

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 28th day of October, 2014.
