

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, the American Heart Association's Go Red For Women® movement has been impacting the health of women for 10 years and more than 627,000 women's lives have been saved and 330 fewer women are dying every day; and

WHEREAS, Heart disease is the No. 1 killer of women, yet only one in five American women believe that heart disease is her greatest health threat; and

WHEREAS, cardiovascular diseases cause one in three women's deaths each year, killing approximately one woman every minute; and

WHEREAS, an estimated 43 million women in the U.S. are affected by cardiovascular diseases; and

WHEREAS, ninety percent of women have one or more risk factors for developing heart disease, and

WHEREAS, women comprise only 24 percent of participants in all heart-related studies; and

WHEREAS, since 1984, more women than men have died each year from heart disease and the gap between men and women's survival continues to widen; and

WHEREAS, women are less likely to call 911 for themselves when experiencing symptoms of a heart attack than they are if someone else is having a heart attack; and

WHEREAS, In celebration of the 11th National Wear Red Day on February 7, 2014, Go Red For Women is asking all women across America to join us in making America Go Red and save women's lives; and

WHEREAS, in recognition of the importance of the ongoing fight against heart disease and stroke;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim Friday, February 7, 2014, to be

NATIONAL WEAR RED DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 10th day of January, 2014.
