

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, March 25, 2014 is a special day for Make-A-Wish Northeastern California and Northern Nevada, celebrating the granting of wishes to children with life-threatening medical conditions to enrich the human experience with hope, strength and joy through their Waffles and Wishes Event; and

WHEREAS, six-year-old Lillian is a child who qualifies for a wish due to her journey in battling cancer of the kidney; and

WHEREAS, experiencing a wish has life-changing impact upon not only the child herself, but her family, friends, volunteers who work on her wish, the staff of the foundation, the donors who make her wish possible, and the community at large; and

WHEREAS, every child with a life-threatening medical condition who faces a challenging, sometimes terrifying journey to recovery deserves to experience all that this has to offer; and

WHEREAS, on behalf of the State of Nevada, my wife, First Lady Kathleen Sandoval, and my family, Lillian shall be crowned princess of the day.

NOW THEREFORE, I, BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, hereby do proclaim, March 25, 2014, a day in the honor of

LILLIAN DRAPER

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 19th day of March, 2014.
