

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, Memorial Day is the time every year when we observe the memory of our nation's fallen, when we express our unwavering appreciation to those service members who gave the ultimate sacrifice in our nation's service, and we mourn with the families and friends who have lost their loved ones; and

WHEREAS, Memorial Day is a time to reflect upon the dedication of the men and women who serve in America's armed forces as they face extraordinary risk and danger on our behalf around the world; and

WHEREAS, Memorial Day celebrates the lives of America's more than 1,300,000 fallen service members during wartime, with over 6,000 coming more recently from the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan; and

WHEREAS, Nevada was born during wartime, and ever since its sons and daughters have served and sacrificed for our country in uniform; and

WHEREAS, during every war that Nevada's sons and daughters have served, some have given the last full measure of devotion on behalf of our nation and our cause; and

WHEREAS, it is a proud honor and a sacred duty to remember their sacrifice, their valor, and their legacy; and

WHEREAS, Nevadans are currently deployed abroad, and they and their families are in the thoughts and prayers of many; and

WHEREAS, May 2014 is "Military Appreciation Month" in Nevada; and

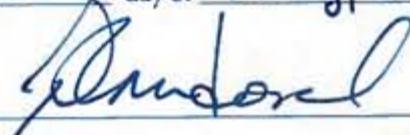

WHEREAS, 2014 is the "Year of the Veteran" in Nevada;

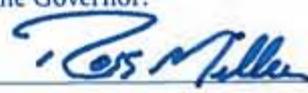

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim May 26, 2014, as

MEMORIAL DAY IN NEVADA

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 21st day of May, 2014.
