

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, Ellie Barstad is retiring from the Department of Motor Vehicles, Field Services Division, on October 12, 2014, after 27 years of loyal service to the State of Nevada; and

WHEREAS, Ellie began her career in state government at the Department of Motor Vehicles in 1987 in what was then known as the Titling Department. She became a title expert. She transferred to Field Services Division in 1989 where she was a window technician and then became a Supervisor. Ellie was chosen for her extensive knowledge regarding titles to work on Project Genesis. She had a large role in the implementation of the new computer system. In 2002 she contributed her knowledge to the kickoff of the new automated testing system; and

WHEREAS, Ellie was nominated for Employee of the Month in February 2004. She received this honor for her assistance in establishing new title procedures, traveling to the outlying offices, helping the information booth and at customer service windows when needed without being asked. Over the many years of public service Ellie has received numerous thank you cards, letters of commendation, and flowers from grateful customers for her dedicated service; and

WHEREAS, Ellie has decided to retire after many years of public service. She plans to spend her time with her husband, use her creativity in her newly built sewing room and putting her green thumb to good use in her garden; and

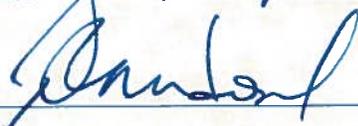

WHEREAS, on behalf of her co-workers and the citizens of the State of Nevada, we thank and commend Ellie Barstad for her many years of service to our Silver State and wish her continued success in all her future endeavors;

NOW, THEREFORE, I BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim October 12, 2014, as a day in honor of

ELLIE BARSTAD

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 30th day of September, 2014.
