

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, participation in athletic competition and team sporting events helps to instill positive character traits, a strong work ethic, and important values such as teamwork, dedication, sacrifice and sportsmanship; and

WHEREAS, Little League baseball organizations across Nevada have helped countless young athletes to develop an appreciation for America's favorite pastime while providing them an opportunity to learn and internalize the fundamental idea that winning is not everything, but rather how the game is played; and

WHEREAS, the Centennial Little League Juniors All-Stars from the City of Sparks, Nevada, under the leadership and guidance of Coach Steven Howe and his staff, performed to the very best of their abilities and were successful in their pursuit of excellence on the field as the 2014 Nevada State Champions; and

WHEREAS, each member of the Centennial Little League Juniors All-Stars team, no matter their position, contributed in meaningful ways to the team's successful and memorable season; and

WHEREAS, the Centennial Little League Juniors All-Stars players, coaches, and parents who supported the team have great cause to be proud of their outstanding performance and team effort during the 2014 season;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim the month of October 2014 as

CENTENNIAL LITTLE LEAGUE MONTH

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 10th day of October, 2014.
