

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, fourth grade educators Mrs. Barbara Wysocki and Mrs. Karen Rimkus, are involved in the education of fourth grade students at Our Lady of Las Vegas Catholic School and their study of the State of Nevada. Their goal is to instruct fourth graders on state history, assign research activities, allow open discussions, provide state information, study the history of Nevada, test the students on their knowledge of Nevada, and encourage state travel; and

WHEREAS, these dedicated individuals deserve recognition and thanks for the outstanding work they are doing for the State, the community, our children, and the fourth graders at Our Lady of Las Vegas Catholic School; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Wysocki and Mrs. Rimkus are instrumental in fulfilling the state's duty to educate their students on Nevada's history; and

WHEREAS, by supporting the learning environment, Mrs. Wysocki and Mrs. Rimkus are crucial partners with the school, teachers, parents, administrators, and the dioceses in our education system; and

WHEREAS, the Nevada Project is a scrapbook of each individual fourth grade student's knowledge and research of our great state of Nevada;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim November 17, 2014, as a day in honor of

OUR LADY OF LAS VEGAS CATHOLIC SCHOOL FOURTH GRADE

NEVADA PROJECT DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 6th day of October, 2014.
