

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, Ed Vogel, long time Review-Journal Capital Bureau Chief, who was inducted into the Nevada Newspaper Hall of Fame in 2012 by the Associated Press, will retire, Friday, March 7, 2014; and

WHEREAS, Ed Vogel started in the business in 1971 covering sports news stories in Michigan and spent 37 years covering governors, members of the legislature and various breaking news stories; and

WHEREAS, Ed Vogel is well known throughout Nevada for his curiosity in countless subjects, his ease in talking to people to get their stories, his knowledge of Nevada overall, in particular State government having covered the Nevada Legislature since 1985. He managed to cover 17 regular sessions and 12 special sessions; and

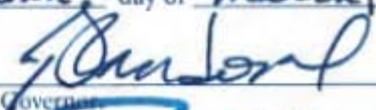

WHEREAS, on behalf of the State of Nevada, we would like to thank Ed Vogel for his hard work, dedication and continued efforts to his passion of journalism and reporting. We wish him all the best in his retirement.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim, March 7, 2014 as a day in honor of

ED VOGEL

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 6th day of March, 2014.
