

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, Dawn R. Saucedo will retire on January 9, 2015, and has served the Silver State with distinction for 30 years, working in support of Nevada Workers' Compensation programs for the State Industrial Insurance System, Industrial Insurance Regulation Section and the Workers' Compensation Section; and

WHEREAS, Dawn steadily progressed from a Workers Compensation Technician Series, Compliance/Audit Investigator Series, and attained two decisive positions which allowed her obvious supervisory and managerial talents to fully develop; and

WHEREAS, Dawn supported employer compliance as the supervisor of the Northern District Employer Compliance Unit. In this role her endeavors were committed to the protection of Nevada workers through ensuring Nevada employer's compliance with mandatory coverage provisions; and

WHEREAS, in her final status, Dawn provided superior service to the section and the State of Nevada as Northern District Manager. Dawn supervised three sections responsible for tasks assigned to the District; and

WHEREAS, Dawn's support of Nevada injured employees, Nevada employers and related elements of the Workers' Compensation Insurance Industry have proved invaluable to all concerned and provided continual examples of a dedicated and caring person; and

WHEREAS, the Division of Industrial Relations and particularly the Workers' Compensation Section of the State of Nevada join with Dawn's family, friends and co-workers in expressing our sincere appreciation for her nearly 30 years of service, giving her the right to a well-deserved and happy retirement;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim January 9, 2015, as a day in honor of

DAWN R. SAUCEDO

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 7th day of January, 2015.
