

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, Pam Becker is celebrating 25 dedicated years of service with the Children's Cabinet, where she continues her exemplary work as a tireless advocate on behalf of Nevada's children and families; and

WHEREAS, Pam began as a Coordinator for the Children's Cabinet truancy program in 1990, later becoming the manager of the Centralized Assessment and Referral Program, which she helped to establish; and

WHEREAS, Pam has played an integral role in the growth and expansion of the Children's Cabinet, helping to further develop the organization's critically important services which touch the lives of so many and upon which countless Nevadans have relied; and

WHEREAS, in addition to her invaluable contributions to the Children's Cabinet, Pam also devotes her time and energy to community interest organizations, including the Washoe County Children's Mental Health Coalition and as a member of Nevada's Board of Psychological Examiners; and

WHEREAS, Pam's current role as Director of Human Resources allows her to utilize her vast experience as a passionate leader while providing the Children's Cabinet with essential administrative and managerial oversight; and

WHEREAS, Pam is the longest tenured employee with the Children's Cabinet, and has become well known for her warmth, compassion, and dedication, affectionately referred to by those privileged to work with her as the "Passionate Doer";

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim January 15, 2015, as a day in honor of

PAM BECKER

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 7th day of January, 2015.
