

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, Heather K. Elliott is retiring from the Commission on Peace Officers' Standards and Training, on February 14, 2015, after more than 20 years of loyal, diligent, and exceptional public service to the State of Nevada; and

WHEREAS, Heather has played an integral role in the growth and expansion of the Commission on Peace Officers' Standards and Training, helping to further develop the organization's critically important services and mission which is paramount to Nevada's Law Enforcement Community; and

WHEREAS, Heather consistently demonstrated a strong sense of purpose and professional responsibility as she carried out her responsibilities at our agency as the Administrative Services Officer and Supervisor; and

WHEREAS, Heather's many years of dedicated service, commitment, contributions, and influence in the overall fiscal management and success of our agency cannot and will not be easily forgotten; and

WHEREAS, the State of Nevada recognizes Heather's outstanding achievement with the Commission on Peace Officers' Standards and Training, and commends her for a job well done; and

WHEREAS, on behalf of the citizens of the State of Nevada, we would like to thank and commend Heather K. Elliott for her many years of devoted and honorable service to the State and wish her continued success in all of her future endeavors;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim February 14, 2015, as a day in honor of

HEATHER K. ELLIOTT

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 23rd day of January, 2015.
