

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, Nevadans can inspire, equip, and mobilize to take action that changes our State; and

WHEREAS, Nevadans connect with volunteer opportunities at hundreds of community service organizations through Nevada Volunteers, my commission on service and volunteerism; and

WHEREAS, Nevada's community service organizations should be commended for recognizing the strength and effectiveness in allocating resources to engaging and supporting volunteers; and

WHEREAS, service to others is a hallmark of the Nevadan character, and, throughout our history as a State, citizens have stepped up to meet our challenges by volunteering in their communities; and

WHEREAS, 422,990 Nevadans showed their dedication to making a difference in Nevada's communities by volunteering more than 58.5 million hours; and

WHEREAS, National Volunteer Week is an opportunity for Nevada to inspire, recognize, and encourage volunteerism as a way Nevadans can engage in their community and meet challenges collectively; and

WHEREAS, volunteers are a vital resource to Nevada's future as a caring and productive State. I thank Nevadans for their dedication and service to our great State and encourage the citizens of Nevada to continue to volunteer or find new ways to volunteer in their local communities;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim April 12-18, 2015, as

NATIONAL VOLUNTEER WEEK IN NEVADA

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 10th day of March, 2015.
