

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, nearly 10,000 sworn officers proudly serve various local or State law enforcement agencies within the State of Nevada; and

WHEREAS, these brave men and women patrol the busy streets of our urban communities or the isolated highways of our rural regions protecting us from those who may do us harm; and

WHEREAS, we should remember the dangers that these officers face and recognize the sacrifices that members of law enforcement entities make without complaint or reservations simply seeing it as part of their duty to service; and

WHEREAS, despite countless improvements in protective gear, technology, and tactics, there are officers injured or killed in the line of duty whether due to unfortunate accidents or the actions of criminal assailants; and

WHEREAS, the Injured Police Officers Fund annually honors the entire Nevada law enforcement community with its "Heroes Live Forever" program; and

WHEREAS, it is our duty as Nevadans to honor those who take the responsibility of guarding us willingly and recognize their contributions in making Nevada a safe and wonderful place to live;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim September 19th–26th 2015, as

THANK A COP WEEK IN NEVADA

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 8th day of September, 2015.
