

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, Maxine Bradshaw is retiring from the Department of Taxation on September 25, 2015, after over eighteen years of loyal, diligent and exceptional public service to the State of Nevada; and

WHEREAS, Maxine began working for the State of Nevada in 1968 until 1973, when she took time off to care for her family, and she returned to the Department of Taxation as a Clerical Trainee, in 1997. Maxine has been promoted many times throughout her tenure and is retiring as a Revenue Officer II; and

WHEREAS, Maxine has served as a constant source of information and encouragement, and has been a role model for all those who have known or have worked with her. Maxine has respectfully, professionally and ethically performed her duties with the Department of Taxation; and

WHEREAS, Maxine has had a profound influence on all persons she comes in contact with by exhibiting care and compassion for her co-workers and for all citizens of Nevada. Maxine is described by her friends and co-workers as a team player, helpful, dedicated, creative, self-motivated and a pleasure to be around; and

WHEREAS, Maxine has distinguished herself through commitment and service throughout the years and will be sincerely missed, both professionally and personally, by all who have had the pleasure and good fortune to work with her; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of the Silver State, and the men and women of the Department of Taxation, have benefited greatly from the dedication of Maxine Bradshaw. We join in wishing her a hearty congratulations and thank you for a job well done;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim September 25, 2015, as a day in honor of

MAXINE BRADSHAW

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 18th day of September, 2015
