

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, from the earliest chapters of America's proud history, immigrants from foreign shores have contributed to shaping, building, and developing the United States and pursuing the American dream; and

WHEREAS, the discoverers, explorers, and settlers who helped to establish our great nation came from diverse walks of life and represented a rich combination of cultural backgrounds, perspectives, and experiences; and

WHEREAS, the inspiring story of the United States is one characterized by the promises of freedom, liberty, and equality that have drawn countless generations of men, women, and children in search of opportunity and a better life in America; and

WHEREAS, immigrants have played a critical role as the creative innovators, thinkers, entrepreneurs, and achievers whose invaluable contributions to the greatness of America are integral to our history and national character; and

WHEREAS, the tired, the poor, the tempest-tossed, and the huddled masses yearning to breathe free, are invited today, as they have been for more than two centuries, to pursue their own American dreams of prosperity, freedom, equality, and opportunity; and

WHEREAS, the State of Nevada joins other states and communities across the nation in acknowledging and celebrating the special place that immigrants continue to occupy in our history, and their role in helping to build our future;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim October 28, 2015, as a day in honor of

NATIONAL IMMIGRANTS DAY IN NEVADA

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 28th day of October, 2015.
