

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, Reddaway professional driver Scott Bunn has achieved the remarkable feat of driving 3 million consecutive miles without a preventable collision; and

WHEREAS, Scott Bunn is the first Reddaway driver in the company's 96-year history to reach this incredible milestone, which is equivalent to driving coast to coast across the United States more than 1,000 times without a preventable collision; and

WHEREAS, Scott Bunn's extraordinary commitment to safety is evident not only in his record as a professional commercial driver, but also in his role as the primary Driver Safety Trainer at Reddaway's Reno terminal, where he has instructed other drivers on the importance of safety on the road; and

WHEREAS, America's trucking industry is responsible for transporting more than 70% of the goods and products that are moved throughout the country and plays an essential role in our nation's economy; and

WHEREAS, Scott Bunn's performance as a professional driver represents the highest level of commitment to safety; and

WHEREAS, the State of Nevada congratulates Scott Bunn on reaching this safety milestone, and commends him on his more than 30 years of professional excellence and dedication to safety on the road;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim November 30, 2015, as

SCOTT BUNN "3-MILLION-MILE SAFE DRIVER DAY" IN NEVADA

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 30th day of November 2015.
