

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, Julie Cryderman is a dedicated and exceptional public servant who has devoted 30 years of outstanding service to the State of Nevada, serving and protecting vulnerable populations within the Department of Health and Human Services; and

WHEREAS, Julie Cryderman began her state service in 1985 with the Division of Welfare and Supportive Services in the Child Welfare Services Unit, contributing to Elder Protective Services and serving as a Health Care Coordinator in the Division of Health Care Financing and Policy from 1989 to 2007; and

WHEREAS, Julie Cryderman will conclude her public service having worked with distinction within the Aging and Disability Services Division's Community Based Care Unit since June 2007; and

WHEREAS, Julie Cryderman has been a strong supporter of, and advocate for, the recipients of Aging and Disability Services Division's Community-Based Care programs, and has shown compassion and respect for the senior citizens and persons with disabilities served by those programs; and

WHEREAS, Julie Cryderman has been instrumental in developing programs within Community Based Care, helping to facilitate and encourage independence for program participants and provide them with critical supportive services and community integration assistance; and

WHEREAS, Julie Cryderman is esteemed by her colleagues for her strong work ethic, her dedication to excellence, and her commitment to encouraging those around her to strive to perform to the best of their abilities; and

WHEREAS, the State of Nevada commends Julie on her outstanding tenure in public service, with great appreciation and gratitude for the profound difference she has made in enhancing the lives of Nevada's vulnerable citizens, and joins her colleagues and friends in extending best wishes to her for a happy and fulfilling retirement;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim January 4, 2016, as a day in honor of

JULIE A. CRYDERMAN

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 5th day of January, 2016.
