

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, Lori Goulart will retire from the Aging and Disability Services Division, having devoted 36 years of loyal public service to the citizens of the State of Nevada; and

WHEREAS, Lori Goulart began her state service with the Division of Welfare and Supportive Services as an Administrative Aid, and will retire as an Administrative Services Officer III who has provided outstanding administrative support throughout her tenure; and

WHEREAS, in addition to her commitment to excellence as an administrative professional, Lori Goulart has also demonstrated an exceptional understanding of the fiscal workings of the State of Nevada and the Aging and Disability Services Division; and

WHEREAS, Lori Goulart's professional work ethic has been complemented by the balance she has struck between her responsibilities to her agency and enriching the lives of those around her, demonstrating her love for her family and an admirable responsibility to help and care for her parents, her daughters, and her grandchildren; and

WHEREAS, though Lori has not sought for recognition for the many accomplishments she has achieved throughout her life and career, she has nevertheless earned such recognition for her exemplary service and her many contributions to the State of Nevada; and

WHEREAS, the State of Nevada commends Lori Goulart on her outstanding tenure in public service, and joins the Department of Health and Human Services and the Aging and Disability Services Division in extending sincere appreciation to Lori for her 36 years of dedication to the citizens of this great state, with best wishes for a happy and fulfilling retirement;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim January 5, 2016, as a day in honor of

LORI GOULART

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 5th day of January, 2016.
