

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, Kimberly Morigeau is retiring after 30 years of outstanding service to the State of Nevada; and

WHEREAS, Kim began her career on March 2, 1987 as an Administrative Assistant I with the Nevada Employment Security Department, and is retiring as an Employment Security Division Program Specialist III with the Department of Employment, Training & Rehabilitation; and

WHEREAS, Kim has been instrumental in the creation of several critical State programs, including the Claimant Employment Program and the Re-employment Services and Eligibility Assessment Program; and

WHEREAS, Kim's excellent management skills, her dedication to her work, and her strong work ethic set an example for the Division; and

WHEREAS, Kim is noted for her commitment, perseverance, and compassion in her service to the Department of Employment, Training & Rehabilitation and the Employment Security Division, and throughout her career has exhibited drive and vision to improve service to the public; and

WHEREAS, Kim has demonstrated the highest professional standards in her work; and

WHEREAS, the State of Nevada commends Kimberly Morigeau on her outstanding tenure as a dedicated State employee and joins her family, friends and colleagues in extending sincere appreciation for her years of service, with best wishes for a happy and fulfilling retirement;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim March 3, 2017 as a day in honor of

KIMBERLY MORIGEAU

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 10th day of February, 2017.
