

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, in 1953, Eugene and Sarah Creel began what would become an incredible journey that has spanned generations, starting with a clear and concise vision of operating their small business in a way that put the needs of their customers first and delivering the highest level of quality and service possible; and

WHEREAS, this mantra would become not only the mission for Creel Printing, but the cornerstone of how things would be for the next 60 years; and

WHEREAS, during the 1970's Allan Creel Sr. steadfastly proceeded and upheld the same philosophies his parents had begun. His loyalty and commitment to customers was unwavering and with a keen business approach and an eye toward the future, Allan Creel Sr. and Debbie Creel were committed to continued reinvestment in the company; and

WHEREAS, as the business grew rapidly from the 1980's - 2000's, their mission of a commitment to customers and excellence never wavered; and

WHEREAS, today, Allan Creel Jr. has taken CREEL Printing to new heights and his ability to look beyond industry trends and set new ones has made him one of the most respected leaders in the printing industry; and

WHEREAS, the commitment to "beyond" cutting edge technology has positioned the company as an innovator in the changing world of print and digital media; and

WHEREAS, three generations later, the Creel name is known and respected industry wide for abiding by and maintaining its founding tradition of excellence for the customers they serve;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim June 29, 2013 as a day in honor of

CREEL PRINTING

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 1st day of July, 2013.
