

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, The Centers for Spiritual Living (CSL), with its home office in Golden, Colorado, provides opportunities for spiritual growth, founded in the principles of Metaphysics and New Thought, through its 450 spiritual centers, communities, and ministries in 30 countries; and

WHEREAS, The Center for Spiritual Living Greater Las Vegas (CSLGLV), chartered on September 23, 1954, and the Las Vegas Center for Spiritual Living (LVCSL), chartered on September 24, 2001, offer their congregations a wide range of activities and opportunities, including: church services, pastoral and lay minister counseling, youth education programs, home and hospital visitation teams, workshops, extensive adult education classes, various fellowship events, and community service experiences; and

WHEREAS, CSL embraces inclusion as an important global mission, with a vision to create a world that works for everyone; and

WHEREAS, CSL established September 14, 2013, as the inaugural "World Day of Service" for all of its centers around the world; and

WHEREAS, LVCSL and CSLGLV united their energy, passion, compassion, and resources to serve the southern Nevada community on the "World Day of Service;" and

WHEREAS, Thirty volunteers donated their time at Clean the World, which sterilizes and recycles gently used soap and shampoo products from area hotels and redistributes them to domestic homeless shelters and impoverished people around the world; and

WHEREAS, Forty volunteers assisted Three Square, southern Nevada's only food bank, with sorting and repackaging food; and

WHEREAS, Congregants from CSLGLV and LVCSL hosted a special picnic for clients of Family Promise, which assists intact homeless families, and families in Foster Kinship, which provides support and resources to individuals raising their relative's children, to honor them with a day of great food, entertainment, celebration, and friendship; and

WHEREAS, the first "World Day of Service" is already inspiring a tradition of expanded service to the southern Nevada community by both LVCSL and CSLGLV; and

WHEREAS, the unity of effort on this "World Day of Service" demonstrates the power of love and harmony, which can be replicated each and every day; and

WHEREAS, all Nevadans come together and recognize that the more they do to support others in their communities, the more their own lives are enriched; and

WHEREAS, the state of Nevada congratulates the congregants of CSLGLV and LVCSL for all that they have contributed to the southern Nevada community on this inaugural "World Day of Service";

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim September 14, 2013 as

World Day of Service in Nevada

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 20th day of August, 2013
