

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, in accordance with the Twenty-sixth Amendment to the United States Constitution, "The right of citizens of the United States, who are eighteen years of age or older, to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of age;" and

WHEREAS, a third of eligible Nevadans are still unregistered to vote; and

WHEREAS, the first step in exercising one's right to vote is the voter registration process as defined by one's state of residency; and

WHEREAS, studies have demonstrated that once someone participates in the voting process, they have a high likelihood of continuing to be an active voter for life; and

WHEREAS, it is now easier than ever before to register to vote through Nevada's statewide online voter registration system; and

WHEREAS, elected officials at all levels are working together in that spirit of impartial participation to encourage all those who are eligible to register to vote;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim September 24, 2013 as

NATIONAL VOTER REGISTRATION DAY IN NEVADA

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 24th day of September, 2013.
