Which prescriptions can I purchase with the digital ArrayRx Discount Card?

You can use the digital ArrayRx Discount Card to purchase any FDA-approved drug including:

- Smoking cessation medications
- Diabetes supplies
- Vaccinations (travel, flu, shingles, pneumonia, and more)
- Some over-the-counter (OTC) drugs. The OTC item must have a National Drug Code (NDC) for it to be covered. NDCs identify drugs for the FDA.

You can look up prescription prices by going to ArrayRxCARD.com. Select "Rx Tools" and then clicking "Find a Drug." Choose the correct form, strength, quantity and days' supply of the medication to ensure you are viewing accurate prices for your prescription.

Can I use the ArrayRx Discount Card if I already have insurance or Medicare?

You can use the digital ArrayRx Discount Card instead of insurance or Medicare if your insurance does not cover a medication. You can also use it when the digital ArrayRx Discount Card gets you a better price than your insurance or Medicare plan. ArrayRx Discount Card purchases will not count toward your deductible or out-of-pocket maximum.

Can my family use my ArrayRx Discount Card?

Each person in your family needs to get their own digital ArrayRx Discount Card. Each person will need to sign up separately. Family members can use the same email address. Each family member will receive their own digital ArrayRx Discount Card with a unique subscriber ID number.
